INTERNAL · THE FLOOR PLAN, FILTERED

861 booths. Twenty eight worth your Sunday.

The full BDNY exhibitor list cross referenced against the Manhattan radar. Most of the hall is national manufacturers with finance teams, not our buyer. What is left is the New York, owner led slice, plus the radar firms that happen to be exhibiting. Tap a card for the why and the one question to ask. Tap Visited when you have.

THE ROUTE

Sunday morning, before the hotel buyers arrive.

Booth numbers cluster by aisle. Start low, work up, finish at the radar firms in the 2000s and 3000s.

HOW TO WALK IT

1. Walk the New York cluster first. Bokara 1268, Rug & Kilim 1133, Mosaique 1156, ArtStar 1164, Ngala 1146 and Reid Witlin 255E are within a few aisles of each other in the low numbers. Start there Sunday morning before the hotel buyers arrive.
2. Lead with their numbers, not ours. Booth staff want to sell product. Ask the owner question from the card: open orders past promised date, approvals out over 60 days, landed cost versus quote. If the owner is not in the booth, get the owner's name and leave.
3. Radar firms are warm calls. Stone Source, Artistic Tile and Nemo are already on the radar with openers. The booth is the easiest version of the walk in: nobody is behind a desk.
4. Pass the big brands. Most of the 861 are national manufacturers with finance teams. The Azorian3 filter still applies on the floor: owner led, 5 to 50 people, no data team.
5. Follow up Tuesday. Everyone you meet gets the same note Tuesday morning: the one number you asked about and a 20 minute screen share offer on fake data. Log each in the status tracker.
